THE LADIES OF THE MACCABEES

VISITED BY TERRITORIAL COMMANDER THIS WEEK.

MRS. HANNAH I. CARR

Some Facts in Connection With the Order and Also With the Knights of the Maccabees.

Mrs. Hannah I. Carr, Territorial Commander of the Ladies of the Maccabees, is in the city infusing new life, courage and enterprise into the local lodge, perfecting the drill team in its beautiful work, increasing its membership and in other ways adding to its efficiency.

Mrs. Carr is a lady who has had a long experience in the work of the organization, having been deputy superintendent nine years and two years in charge of the work in Indian Territory. She has had also great success in her efforts to build up the order in this new country, and is meeting with great success in this, her third visit to Tulsa. She is a firm believer in Maccabeanism, and never neglects an opportunity to preach its Gospel and make converts. This afternoon she is in session with the local lodge and witnessing the initiation of a number of new candidates.

The Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees have always been solid financially. The knowledge of this fact has caused a tremendous growth in certain parts of this country, notably in the Northwest and in the South. There never has been a quibble or word of debate regarding the payment of a policy when all the facts in the case are clearly set forth, and this prompt payment has gained thousands of members in both organizations. They are popular, especially those of limited incomes, who are not confined to these by any means.

Mrs. Carr has told the members in Tulsa some facts regarding the investments of the organization they and many others were and are ignorant of. Among these is the fact that the order of the Lady Maccabees own bonds and property in the Indian Territory to the amount of $150,930.36, and that they own Tulsa bonds to the amount of $27,375.00. In point of wealth the both organizations are among the strongest in the country. Their investments are all well placed, and their finances are managed by the most able, conservative and honest men and women in the United States.

Lately the Knights of the Maccabees in Tulsa have begun to "get a move on," to use a slang phrase, and are now meeting regularly and steadily increasing their membership. The Ladies of the Maccabees have been more active and are rapidly growing into a strong organization which Mrs. Carr will leave in better shape than before. Death has not caused many breaks in their ranks so far, but one member, Mrs. Myrtle Amerine, died recently and her little girl received $1,000 this week, the amount for which the mother had been insured in the organization. The World made a mistake yesterday when it stated the Knights had paid this policy.

Mrs. Carr gave the World representative a copy of the official organ of the Ladies of the Maccabees, "The Ladies' Review," published monthly at Port Huron, Michigan. It is far better than the majority of such organs, and is ably edited, contains a great deal of interesting reading matter, has news from lodges all over the country, carries membership, mortuary and financial statements and, in fact, keeps a member in close touch with everything vitally concerning the order everywhere.

Tulsa is wonderfully kind to benevolent, fraternal and insurance orders of all kinds, but none are more deserving of good will than the two mentioned in this article.
